Ya two faces sometimes I can't tell who u are , or who I'm dealing with right now
That's why I spend alota time at the bar
Like this liquor gone be my solution

I'm spending money all off excuses

But what I'm spose to do when my boo ain't feeling me
And she , just need a moment don't need to feel my energy
When she , tell me she love me and she don't want for me to leave
